OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUCCESS

The purpose of this fund is to provide grants, and to identify and develop academic, athletic, vocational and creative arts skills that may advance individuals with a disability, towards greater independence. Grants are available to individuals so they may participate in formal instruction or training, or for non-profit agencies and educationally-focused institutions to identify and refer individuals with a disability for formal instruction or training.

FUND DESCRIPTION

Funds allocated will go to individual applicants and/or non-profit agencies and/or educationally-focused institutions. Grant range will be determined.

WHO MAY APPLY

Grants are available to:

Any individual with a disability who desires formal instruction or training in a particular vocation, academic, athletic or artistic field.

Any qualified instructor on behalf of an individual with a disability who exhibits a particular skill to be developed and who desires formal instruction or training.

Any adult with custodial responsibility for, and on behalf of, an individual with a disability who exhibits a particular skill to be developed and who desires formal instruction or training.

DISABILITY DEFINITION

For the purposes of this fund, “individuals with a disability” means those individuals having mental retardation, hearing impairments, speech and language impairments, visual impairments, emotional disturbances, orthopedic impairments, autism, traumatic brain injury or other health impairments, specific learning disabilities or multiple disabilities who, because of their needs, require special education or related services.
